SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

14. You shall allow the supervising probation officer or designee to conduct periodic random inspections, including retrieval and copying of data from the computer and any internal or external peripherals. This may require removal of the equipment for purposes of more thorough inspection. Further, you shall not possess or use any public or private data encryption technique or program. You may be required to purchase hardware or software systems that monitor your computer usage and shall consent to installation of such systems on our computer.
15. You shall provide the supervising probation officer with access to any requested financial information, including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of your Federal income tax returns. You shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the supervising probation officer. You shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset, without the advance approval of the supervising probation officer.
16. You shall submit your person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. probation officer, at a sensible time and manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. You shall warn persons with whom you share a residence that the premises may be subject to search.
17. You shall undergo a substance abuse evaluation and, if indicated, enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program, including aftercare. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability. You shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising probation officer and treatment provider.
18. You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising probation officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.
- *19. You shall participate in the home confinement program for 90 days. You shall abide by all the requirements of the program, which will include electronic monitoring or other location verification system. You shall pay all or part of the costs of the program based upon your ability to pay. You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment, education, religious services, medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, court-ordered obligations, or other activities as pre-approved by the supervising probation officer.
19. While on supervised release, restitution is payable on a monthly basis at a rate of not less than 10 percent of the defendant's net household income, commencing 30 days after her release from imprisonment.
